SIR

Sub: Interim relief to Municipal employees.

With reference to your letter No. C-C.184/46-47 dated 13th March 1947 on the above subject, I am directed to state that the interim relief sanctioned to certain categories of Government employees in G.O. No. Rev. 6350-641 / 46-47 11-4-2 dated 25th February 1947 does not apply to the Municipal employees unless its benefits are specifically extended to their employees. If it is desired to grant to the Municipal employees also any such interim relief, it is open to the Municipal Council or other local bodies concerned to pass a specific resolution in the matter and obtain orders of Government, pointing out the ways and means of meeting such an additional expenditure out of its funds.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H. B. Pallegar,
